PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. Virgil Garrison, of Paducah, spent yesterday in the city on business.

Miss Mary McCarty spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. and daughter, Miss Fannie, are visiting relatives in Todd county.

Mr. Sarah Coleman attended the gathering of Christians at Nashville last week.

Tom Williams is about visiting relatives in New Orleans and other Southern cities.

Miss Ruth Stone, of Kentucky, is a niece of Hon. W. J. Stone, ex-Governor of Kentucky.

Dr. T. S. McCall attended the Illinois River Association, at Pleasant Valley Baptist church in Trigg county, last week.

Mrs. J. E. Stallworth, residing teacher in Bethel Female College, returned Sunday from a brief visit to Louisville.

Ford Schmitt is expected home today from a trip to Chicago, where he attended the opening ceremonies of the World's Fair.

Rev. B. H. Ely, of Henderson, Kentucky, passed through the city yesterday on his way to a protracted meeting at Henderson Baptist church in Henderson.

Miss Maple Alta, who for a week had been a guest of a son of Gov. Brown at Clarksville, spent Thursday and Friday in the city. She is now in Springfield.

The Purgan Board of the city is the best on earth. Ask your grocer for the Purgan Board.

Hopkinsville is going to have a sure good real estate boom next spring.

Miss Mabel is making a winning drive for herself and is coming down the home stretch with every prospect of success.

There is talk of getting up another old-fashioned fair for 1903, with large and more suitable grounds, and a little ship-shaped tent.

The Lathrop-Bowling Company gave very satisfactory performance Friday and Saturday nights. Ingomar and Damon and Cynthia were the plays.

At Paducah, Ky., two small boys got into a fight and John Vogel, aged 15, hit John Hoon, aged 13, a heavy blow on the neck, breaking his neck and killing him instantly. Vogel is held for murder.

Bob Ritchey, a wealthy farmer of Allen county, was nominated by Wm. Moore, while he was riding along the road with his wife and baby. His wife recognized the assassin. Moore is a well-to-do farmer and a neighbor, who is now under indictment for a similar attempt to kill Ritchey.

A debate lasting several days had just closed at Golden Ford, Trigg county. The contestants championed Dr. J. N. Hall, D. D., of Paducah, Ky., defending the Bible and Christianity in general, and Mr. Putnam, an infidel from New York City. This section of Trigg, between the rivers has been for some time afflicted with infidelity, but it will be long time before anyone will again publicly attack the Bible in that part of "God's country." Dr. Hall so completely overthrew his opponent and demolished his arguments that the skeptical supporters of the New York man were content to give up the fight. Dr. Hall, the editor of the Baptist, of Paducah, and took the names of the 700 subscribers in the community as the result of the debate.

The observance of Columbus Day by the children of the Public Schools attracted a large crowd of visitors Friday morning. The exercises were held at the yard and were inaugurated by raising the American flag upon a pole fifty feet high. Prof. Dr. Hoon then read the President's proclamation, and the various grades of the school were then marched out in regular order and sang carried out a series of program of recitations or songs, and after saluting the flag passed on and made way for the next column. This continued until twelve grades had been heard. The crowd was then taken inside and other exercises were held in the ravine room. The exercises were quite an event in the school and the celebration was pronounced success.

HERE AND THERE.

Low Dockstader and his Merry Minstrel association will soon be here in connection with the Universalist program.

City taxes for 1902 have been due since last of June and must be paid. Call at once, pay and save costs.

Dr. A. P. Campbell, dentist, has moved to the new building, up stairs, next door to Judge Landon law office. Operating a specialty.

For more, leave your tobacco barn and contents with the GIANT INSURANCE AGENCY.

Callie & Wallis, general insurance agents, are prepared to write risks on tobacco barns and contents. Best companies represented.

All of our exchanges and clubs are weekly were filled with Columbus day literature. Columbus of all parties had a rest for our day.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep and you weep alone." That is the laugh, says John Low Dockstader, the minstrel, as I hate to be alone in anything.

Most of our citizens attended the grand gathering of the Christian community at Nashville last week. A large number of others also went west to the race.

The new meeting house of the Logan Grove Baptist church, in Logan county, was dedicated on Sunday last by Rev. R. W. Moore, D. D., of Princeton.

Thomas Rodman advertised a special sale of cut-price shoes for yesterday, and by nine o'clock had sold every one of the 128 pairs placed on sale. Who says advertising in the Kentucky does not pay!

Mock elections are being held in some parts of the State to teach the average voter how to cast his ballot. Some of the candidates will declare the November election a mockery when the returns don't pan out at all.

A new colored church, a frame structure, and 30 beds have been sold around the new depot site. The citizens are anxious to incorporate the firm as soon as the proper steps can be taken.

The preparations for the observance of Columbus day detailed a great deal of extra work on the teachers and scholars and they are heartily glad it is over. They can console themselves, however, with the fact that they will not have to go through with it when the fifth centennial rolls round.

Mr. E. H. Brown has accepted a position with the popular dry goods store of Messrs. Richards, Klein & Co. Mr. Brown has had much experience in the line of business and is one of the most popular salesmen in the city. He is well acquainted to all, he will bring increased popularity to his employer.

West Union Baptist church at Gracy, has been in need of repairs and repairs. The entrance has been changed from the south to the north and the old entrance has been taken into a few feet of the door, and new windows have also been put in. It will be when complete one of the handsomest country churches in the county.

Chas. & Wallace sold last Friday the Frank Cox farm at Newcastle of 300 acres to W. H. Ellis, of Louisville, Todd county. The tract contains 265 acres and is one of the very best farms in Christian county. The price obtained was satisfactory and Mr. Ellis will be in a short time

DOCKSTADER IS COMING.

The eminent comedian will soon be with us. Low Dockstader, strictly speaking is a Minstrel Comedian. He was not dragged in from the concert hall stage, nor whiskered around the circus in a lion's skin, nor was he made to glide down a flight of grand stairs from the "legitimate." He was born, not made. He was baptised a Minstrel Comedian by a real old hand, that preached punch picking and Southern melody down on the old plantation in the good old days "The folk we pay, by god, sir." Dockstader is the sun around which the other planets revolve. The planets are burning orbs of brilliancy and can be compared to the average minstrel performer as the sun can be compared with a tailor die.

GOV. BROWN.

The State's Executive to Speak Next Saturday.

The address of Gov. John Brown on next Saturday, Oct. 29, at 10 o'clock p. m., will be the last grand rally of the Democrats in the present campaign. Gov. Brown is without a superior in the state as a campaign orator and he will make a great speech. Every Democrat in the county, as well as every voter open to conviction, should be on hand to hear him. The Governor of Kentucky is very popular in Christian county and his visit here is taken as a special compliment to our county that Democrats will not fail to appreciate by turning out in force. Gov. Brown has only one other act speech in the present campaign and his address here will be the urgent solicitation of the committee, who esteem themselves fortunate in having prevailed upon him to come at a time when he finds it very difficult to get away from his pressing duties at the Capital.

The Governor will arrive at 10:25 Friday night and the people will have an opportunity to second him a suitable welcome at the Phoenix Hotel Saturday morning.

Speaking this week.

Local agents for the following appointments in the county this week:

Ritter's School House, Paducah, Tuesday night Oct. 26, at 7 o'clock p. m.

The First National Bank has opened an account called "The Columbian Exposition Fund," and proposes to plan by which most any body may be able to attend the great fair in 1904. Particulars on application.

NOTICE.

To farmers of Christian and adjacent counties, I will have at G. H. Layne's livery stable in Hopkinsville on Saturday, Oct. 29, 1892, one load of high grade Clydesdale and Norman blood mares for sale, from $10 to $15 each, and one team of work. Weight from 12 hundred to 17 hundred pounds. Come and see the stock. I will spare you ever saw.

G. W. SMITH.
North English, Iowa.

Farm for Sale Nov. 7.

A fine and fertile farm known as the BOSTICE PLACE, near Gracy. It is situated on Shiloh Creek and is divided on the O. V. Railroad, 6 miles west of Hopkinsville and 3 miles from Gracy. The tract contains 167 acres less a acre needed to break a railroad. It is well improved, well watered and in a good state of cultivation. It has a promising young stock of horses and cattle. There is both a lying spring and a good stream. It is located in a very fertile and healthy section of the farm of Mr. McCarty and Mrs. N. M. Cox, and is convenient to schools, post office and churches. I will offer this valuable tract at public sale at the Court House door in Hopkinsville, at 11 o'clock a. m., Monday Nov. 7, 1892.

John J. Rizzo.

One First-class 16 horse power Engine for sale at bargain.

The three-page poem by John G. Whittier, which will appear in the November St. Nicholas Magazine, commemorates the visit of a party of young girls to the poet's home. It contains the following line: "For what must be I really sad, that the good Quaker boy has passed away?" "I would not if I could repeat. A life which will be good and sweet; I keep in awe, as in my prayer, I am not unfaithful to my trust, And grateful for all that I meet, I go the common way, content To make no exception, even On my terms with life and fate, For what must be I really sad, And I trust the path I cannot see, That God is good enough to show, And when at last upon life's path The curtain falls, I only pray

The three-page poem by John G. Whittier, which will appear in the November St. Nicholas Magazine, commemorates the visit of a party of young girls to the poet's home. It contains the following line: "For what must be I really sad, that the good Quaker boy has passed away?" "I would not if I could repeat. A life which will be good and sweet; I keep in awe, as in my prayer, I am not unfaithful to my trust, And grateful for all that I meet, I go the common way, content To make no exception, even On my terms with life and fate, For what must be I really sad, And I trust the path I cannot see, That God is good enough to show, And when at last upon life's path The curtain falls, I only pray
